NICOLA GETS SAND IN HER BOTTOM!

Before flying back to New York, international model Nicola Breytenbach made the most of the Cape sunshine by heading down to Camps Bay for a few hours. The usually graceful beauty reacted just like the rest of us would when she decided to brace the icy waters – by screeching when it dunked her and then trying desperately to get rid of the sand that was stuck in her bikini bottom. It's hard to remain ladylike when faced with a sand nappy, isn't it, Nic?

"Pretend you're in Thailand, pretend you're in Thailand..."

Nicola liked to do puppet shows with her cheeks
