INTERNATIONAL supermodel Nicola Breytenbach, yet another South African success, was recently spotted doing some scuba-diving with her boyfriend Ben Steiner in Gaansbaai, Cape Town.

The model, who came home for the festive season, took friends and family shark-cage diving (of all things), and decided to take a dip in the ocean with some of the scariest creatures known to mankind! Looks like this girl's afraid of nothing. No wonder she's come so far, so quickly!
