Nicola: Model with An Appetite

EXCLUSIVE PICTURE!

FOR those of you who think supermodels don't eat, think again. SA beauty Nicola Breytenbach was spotted taking a bite into a hot dog recently – without a care in the world. And Breytenbach, who resides in New York, is also getting ready to walk down the aisle – which makes us admire her even more. You go girl – you're gorgeous, successful and a great role model for young ladies around the world! Now that's what we call natural beauty!
